FLOODS IN FRANCE AND SPAIN.

Heavy storms and floods have occurred in South France. The river Rhone has risen to such an extent that it has overflowed its banks in several places. Rognemaure, Beaucaille and Valabreque have been inundated, and the ancient amphitheatres and casino have been flooded. The inhabitants of Valabreque are living, for the time being, in the upper stories of their houses.

Great anxiety is felt concerning the condition of affairs at Avignon, the lower portions of which have been flooded.

The valleys of the Saone and of the Ardeche have been inundated by the torrential rain.

The upper districts of Cevennes have suffered great damage.

A part of Auxerre has been inundated, and food has to be taken to the inhabitants from outside districts in boats.

Numerous smaller towns in Southern France report more or less extensive floods and loss of property.

A terrible cyclone swept over the City of Seville, Spain, on Wednesday, with the result that houses, chimneys and trees were wrecked, and there was a general panic in the city.

Many people were injured, and it is feared that some fatalities occurred, though no deaths have yet been reported. There are fears that more serious damage has been done than yet reported.

MISS KATE ROWLAND.—Miss Kate M. Rowland leaves Warrenton to-day for Alexandria. Miss Rowland is a member of the 17th Va. Regt. Chap. D. of U. C. She has the "lost cause" deep at heart, and was the first to organize a Chapter of the Confederacy in Alexandria, Maryland and Washington City. It was her mother, who had charge of the first hospital located at Fauquier Springs after first battle of Manassas, where she nursed the sick and wounded and read the burial service over the dead when no minister could be then had. This labor of love she continued in the hospitals in Charlottesville, Lynchburg and Richmond. Miss Rowland is a descendant of Thompson Mason, jurist and statesman, and only brother of George Mason of Gunston Hall. Two of her brothers were in the Confederate service, the elder on the staff of Gen. Lomax, of Warrenton, the other in the navy and on the Shenandoah during her famous cruise.—Warrenton Index.
